

HP-GSB Alumni and Friends Inspirational Talk

End-of-year Event

In Partnership with Namibia Media Holdings

A Gathering of Legends of Change

In the fast-paced, results-driven world of business, the stakes are high and there is often very little downtime. Sustaining high levels of performance and delivering excellent results requires you to periodically recharge your batteries in order to revive the passion and creativity needed to innovate and grow in all areas of your life.

That is why the Harold Pupkewitz Graduate School of Business invites you to its refreshing end-of-year talk, where you will gain new perspectives into your professional and personal development, network with other like-minded people and end the year with us on a highly-motivated and inspired note.

This year, we present you with two prolific speakers who have walked the talk, and continue to make significant contributions to the Namibian society at large. You will be motivated to make your own unique contribution to issues of socio-economic importance; see the business opportunities around you; build your personal brand and craft your own journey towards self-actualisation and becoming the best version of yourself.

The Presenters

Madame Monica Geingos, First Lady of the Republic of Namibia

Topic: Social Returns vs Capital Returns

Madame Geingos is a qualified lawyer and seasoned businesswoman with over 15 years' experience in the financial sector as a private equity and governance expert. She has served on the boards of large public and private sector companies as either chairperson or deputy chairperson. She is focused on utilising her extensive corporate and deal-making experience to enrich her role as the First Lady. Madame Geingos is known for her strong, well-articulated, and transformational viewpoints, as well as her passion for projects that are evidence-based and focused on targeted outcomes. In May 2016, she launched her One Economy Foundation, which aims to build a bridge of opportunity between the formal, urban economy and the informal, rural economy. Madame Geingos was appointed UNAIDS Special Advocate for Young Women and Adolescent Girls during the United Nations General Assembly in New York in September 2016.

Sam Shivute, Motivational Speaker and Executive Coach

Topic: Beyond your business degree: remain relevant in your chosen profession and create your own winning formula for success

Sam Shivute is one of the most sought-after public speakers in Namibia, captivating audiences with his rise from humble beginnings as an assistant taxi driver to holding a prominent executive position in the central banking environment. His company, Sam Shivute Inspiration, specialises in areas such as leadership consulting, motivational teaching and life coaching. Currently serving as Director: Banking Services Department at Bank of Namibia, he also sits on the boards of several public and private sector organisations. Mr Shivute's qualifications include a Master of Laws (LLM) in International Finance and Banking Law (University of Liverpool, UK), and a BJuris and Bachelor of Laws (both from UNAM). He has been appointed as the chairperson, facilitator and face of the Digital Education Show Africa 2016, which will be held at the Sandton Convention Centre, Johannesburg, in October. Next year, he will serve as a technical presenter at the World Banknote Summit in Basel, Switzerland.
