EXECUTIVE EDUCATION

Keeping you on top of your game

SELECTED EXECUTIVE MBA COURSES ON OFFER:

The dynamic and fiercely competitive nature of the business world demands that executives keep abreast of local and international business trends and practice. Today's executive will benefit from a thorough, case-based learning experience that equips them with the analytical and strategic skills to retain their place at the forefront of the game.

This is why the Harold Pupkewitz Graduate School of Business is now offering senior managers modules from its newly-introduced Advanced Business Leadership Programme – the Executive MBA. Now you can choose what to study to widen your perspective, fill management gaps, and secure your organisation's competitive advantage. These NQF Level 9 accredited modules enable executives to spearhead growth and innovation in the Namibian economy.
